

Symposium 23–24 November

Welcome to the Novia Research Symposium!

We are pleased to invite you all to join us at Campus Raseborg, where the symposium will be held in room C198/199 from 12:00.

The symposium provides an overview of the ongoing research and projects at Novia University of Applied Sciences – Campus Raseborg, by researchers and students alike.

Invited Speakers

Riina Klais, University of Tartu

Aleksi Lehtikainen, Finnish Museum of Natural History

Sanna Mäkeläinen, University of Helsinki

Wouter Vansteelant, University of Amsterdam
